

August 21, 2003

INVESTORINFO ANNOUNCEMENT

The managing director of InvestorInfo Ltd (INV), Ms Bernadette Brennan, today announced that she had resigned from the company to pursue other interests.

Director and the company's founder, Mr Greg Bright, will be acting chief executive while a search is undertaken for a permanent replacement.

The chairman, Mr Mark Cohen, said that while he was disappointed to see Ms Brennan go, he understood that she wanted a change. Mr Cohen said Ms Brennan had performed well in her role and would be missed by staff and clients.

He said the company was well positioned and had the depth of management to continue to pursue its growth strategy.

Ms Brennan joined InvestorInfo in 1999, prior to the company's public listing, rising to head of sales and marketing before becoming managing director in July 2002.

She said: "We have accomplished a lot over the past year and the company, with very talented staff, is in a strong position for future growth."

Mark Cohen
Chairman
InvestorInfo Ltd