Dear David

InvestorInfo Limited (INV) Rights Issue – Request for Suspension of Deferred Settlement Trading

In light of the issue of the interim stop order by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) in relation to the INV prospectus issued by INV, the status of the rights offer is currently under review. In these circumstances, the board of INV requests a suspension of those shares which are trading on a deferred settlement basis. As ASIC's interim order relates only to those shares issued pursuant to the rights offer, a suspension of trading all ordinary shares currently on issue is inappropriate.

INV understands that no shares have in fact been traded on a deferred settlement basis as yet.

INV expects that the suspension would take effect until the interim stop order is lifted. INV is not aware of any reason why the suspension should not be granted.

The board of INV has also determined to extend the closing date of the rights offer by 3 weeks to 13 April 2004. The board will review this extended closing date once it has considered the ASIC statement of concerns regarding the rights offer prospectus and determined whether to further extend the closing date.

Please let me know if you require any further information. I look forward to your response.

Yours sincerely
